WASHINGTON NEWS.

Washington, May 21 .- A special to the Times says, the delegation from North Carolina, now in that city, asserts that the party known, during the war, as the Conservative party in that State, was in reality composed mainly of Union men, who were compelled to assume the guise of desired, from a rich brown to a jetty, lustrous black, that will not smut, crock, or stain the clothing. Invest opposition to the ultra advocates of secession, and that two years ago Gov. Vance was elected to his position as a professional representative of that party, but that he betrayed those who placed him in power, by becoming the tool of Davis.

The first step taken in North Carolina towards reconstruction, will be the appointment of a Military Governor, under whose call a State Convention shall meet and devise measures for the proper amendment of the Constitution, State Officers and Members of Congress.

GENERAL SHERIDAN'S NEW COMMAND. General Sheridan's new command virtually supercedes General Canby in the command of the General Canby has been assigned to the command of the Department of the Gulf, which re lieves General Banks, who is ordered to report to the Adjutant General of the army. GEN. BANKS SUPERCEDED. The Department of the Gulf is considerably male constitution is subject. It moderates obstructions,

This change in the several military commands has been contemplated for several weeks.

CAUSE OF THE DETENTION OF JEFF DAVIS. A special to the World, dated Washington, they are safe. May 21, says: The detention of Jeff Davis at Fortress Monroe is in expectation that some time will elapse before the evidence showing his complicity with the assassination conspiracy will be collected. He will in all probability be indicted for treason by the grand jury sitting at Alexandria.

DEPARTURE OF SHERIDAN. A special to the Tribune, dated Washington, May 21, says: Sheridan left for Texas last evening. It is understood that he has authority to collect such troops as may be available in the Western Department, and transfer them to Galveston, and thence to march upon Kirby Smith's by return mail. forces. His whole cavalry force passed by his window at Willard's vesterday, as a tribute of respect to their departing chieftain. On Saturday evening he was serenaded, and when called upon for a speech, he merely said that he had been so long in the service that he had no time to make a speech-maker of himself, which he regretted for the sake of this occasion

THE RESPITE OF BOWLES AND MILLIGAN. President Johnson, in granting a respite to the Indiana conspirators, said he was only carrying out a purpose of Mr. Lincoln's, and it must especially those who are exposed to the miasmatic innot be taken as a precedent.
